

Refund Policy

Chhotisi Asha Charitable Trust

Chhotisi Asha Charitable Trust is a non-profit, non-governmental organization working towards providing free education and support to underprivileged students. As we do not sell products or services, the concept of a “refund” does not generally apply to our operations.

All contributions made to the Trust are considered voluntary donations towards our charitable activities. Once a donation has been received and acknowledged, it is non-refundable.

However, in case of an erroneous or duplicate transaction, kindly contact us at Finance@Chhotisiasha.in within 7 working days of the donation. Genuine errors, if any, will be reviewed by the management, and corrective action may be taken at the sole discretion of the Trust.

We deeply appreciate your support and understanding in helping us continue our mission of empowering underprivileged children through education.
